March 2024 brings us the unique opportunity to complete our observance of Lent, celebrate Jesus' arrival in Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, move through the events of Holy Week and celebrate the glorious resurrection of our Lord and Savior on Easter Sunday!

How will you mark these Holy Days?
Who will you invite to join you?
How will you proclaim the Gospel?

*“Lord I lift Your name on high
Lord I love to sing Your praises
I'm so glad You're in my life
I'm so glad You came to save us*

*You came from heaven to earth
to show the way
From the earth to the cross, my debt to pay
From the cross to the grave,
from the grave to the sky
Lord I lift Your name on high”*

From our Executive Presbyter,
Dr. Tom Lovell...

Dear Partners in Ministry,

It is a story we know quite well. Once there was a man who had two sons. One was the perfect child: quiet and courteous, hardworking, and dependable, well-behaved and well-mannered. The other son, however, was a problem child: rebellious and reckless, stubborn, and careless, full of energy and full of mischief. It is also a story with a plot twist as it is the reckless son whose behavior is rewarded, which flies in the face of proper protocol.

Why throw him a party? Wasn't his desperate situation of his own doing? Why not throw a party for the son who respected the traditions of the family, stayed home, and helped take care of the family farm? Throwing such an outlandish bash for this wayward son certainly doesn't seem like the best way to teach this young whippersnapper a lesson. Yet, here comes the prodigal child, smelling of cheap booze and stale perfume, and his father throws him the biggest party this side of Jerusalem. It just doesn't make sense, and it especially doesn't make sense for us to read of such a party during Lent. Lent is supposed to be a time of confession and repentance. When a prodigal child dares to come home after wasting away the family fortune, it ought to be in sackcloth and ashes. Yet, this father has the chef prepare his finest meal and dresses this unkempt, ungrateful son in patent leather shoes and a tuxedo. It's a travesty of justice. The next thing you know, the father will give his wayward son his old room back, buy him a new wardrobe, and accept him back into the family as if nothing at all has happened. Such actions rub directly against the grain of the Lenten season. What happened to the good ol' days when the focus of Lent was on the pain and suffering of the cross and preachers pounded their pulpits and proclaimed the need to repent of our sin, take up our cross daily and follow Jesus? What happened to the fire and brimstone? Here in the middle of Lent, we aren't supposed to talk about parties, we are supposed to be challenged to confess and repent.

Let me suggest to you that repentance is exactly what this last parable in the fifteenth chapter of Luke is about. As the prodigal realized his plight, Luke writes: "That brought him to his senses. He said, 'I'm going back to my father. I'll say to him, Father, I've sinned against God, I've sinned before you; I don't deserve to be called your son. Take me on as a hired hand.' He got right up and went home to his father." Is that not a story of repentance? What is repentance if it is not coming to our senses, realizing our sin, turning our lives around, and returning home? As we traverse these remaining days of Lent, perhaps we prodigal sons and daughters would do well to realize our plight, come to our senses, and return home, confident that our loving and gracious God will embrace us and invite us to the party of his kingdom.

Grace & Peace,
Tom

Welcome to our new Stated Clerk, Rev. Tom Lewis who was elected to a three-year term on February 24, 2024 at the Winter Stated Meeting! Tom is no stranger to North Alabama Presbytery. He currently serves as Pastor at Copeland Presbyterian Church in Athens and has served our Presbytery on various committees and commissions in the past, as well as serving as our Moderator in 2017. Tom is a self-proclaimed "polity geek" and stands ready to help our Presbytery and congregations navigate what it means to be Presbyterian in today's world!

Thank you to Ruling Elder Therese Howell for her wonderful work as Stated Clerk from 2020-2024! Therese, who lives in Franklin, TN, traveled to help our Presbytery in numerous ways during our transition and we are grateful for her service!

In February, we bid a sad good-bye to our precious friend and long-time servant, Rev. Dr. Jim Roberts as he slipped the bonds of earth to enter God's Triumphant Kingdom. Jim's ministry included serving as Pastor at Hope, Huntsville and as Parish Associate at First, Huntsville. Jim also blessed us with his leadership on many committees and was a guiding hand to many pastors and elders alike.

Jim's Memorial Service will be held at First Presbyterian Church, Huntsville at 2:00 pm on March 3, 2024. Please remember Diane and his family in your prayers.

Fellowship, Huntsville's Food Distribution Success Runs on Volunteerism

Fellowship's food distribution began nearly 12 years ago, and volunteers have been 100% essential to every aspect of it. Their faithfulness to this vibrant ministry precedes the Matthew 25 designation. The church was already living into the verses by serving the marginalized in the community. Although several volunteers have relocated, died, or health problems have sidelined them, new friends have come onboard.

The food distribution ministry, funded by the church and individual contributions, serves families throughout the community by providing food for two weeks. Serving others, in fact, is the major motivator expressed by the volunteers. Debra Buie's statement sums up numerous attitudes. "The most important thing about working with the food program is knowing it is a faithful and steadfast part of the community, and it is meeting a critical need of many in the community," she says. "... [The] food program identifies to me how important it is to give of one's self for worthwhile causes."

Mrs. Dorothy B. Johnson, the creative procurer of food and an original volunteer when the food program was born during the leadership of Elder Joyce Pettis Temple, has been fully committed to locating nutritious foods, especially fresh vegetables and fruits. "I can't stand to see anybody going hungry," she has fervently stated.

Although all volunteers perform numerous tasks, Mary Peagler, the 'greeter' to arriving families, hears families' stories, learns about disappointments and mountain highs, and receives prayer requests. "I have gotten to know so many of the recipients personally," she says. "They share their joys, sorrows and fears with me. One special opportunity my volunteering gives . . . is when they ask for prayer. I can pause and do it right then. Many of them are like family to me, and I feel that they would say the same."

The food program relies on retired volunteers because of its weekdays requirements. "After retirement I was looking for something to do," Maureen Young confesses. "I mentioned my desire to volunteer somewhere, and thanks to Mary Mitchell, the rest is history. This happened about ten years ago. [The food program] has been a wonderful experience." "The food distribution program is a reminder to us all that at any time, any one of us could be on the other end ...receiving the box. If we are lucky," retired and relocated members Mary B. and Herbert Peagler add.

The volunteers' work requires three days but on distribution day—each 3rd Wednesday of the month— it is arduous, lasting from 8:30 am—3:00 pm, or longer. Among the tasks are reminder robo calls to families about the pick-up date; enforcing the banana boxes used; maintaining records for the program; transporting the food, unloading and sorting it; loading the boxes over two mornings; driving to literally pick up the food; maintaining records of families picking up; and delivering food to some families without transportation. Reverend Gregory Bentley may be seen lending a helping hand and enjoying lunch, too.

Lois Thompson cooks a hot meal for the volunteers. She considers her work a ministry. "Approximately two or more years ago," Lois says, "I was asked to help monthly with feeding the volunteers on Tuesday and Wednesday. I learned that this is my true ministry, preparing food for the workers. [It] allows me to continue to bless others as well as continue participating in the Food Distribution Program."

Elder Jackie Bennett oversees this significant ministry of the church as convener of the Witness and Service Ministry Team. She is in her second three-year term. It is 'a lot of work,' Jackie says. Congratulations to the volunteers and supporters of the Food Distribution Program for unselfishly living into Matthew 25, and also reflecting Hebrews 13:16: "Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God." This successful and meaningful program indeed runs on volunteers.

Celebrating Legacies

At the beginning of March, we bid a fond farewell to Newell and Mary Witherspoon as they move from Huntsville to Birmingham to be nearer to their daughters. The Witherspoons are truly a legacy here in North Alabama Presbytery through their work on the Peacemaking Committee, Presbyterian Women, and tireless energy serving on various commissions and committees. THANK YOU NEWELL & MARY! Our love and gratitude go with you as you enter this new chapter of life!

We're thrilled to share updates from our LATEST PROJECT!

Thanks to a generous donation from Trinity Presbyterian Church of Huntsville when the church sadly closed in 2023, we're transforming the old thrift store into a new staff training center. This space will be instrumental in providing ongoing training, including Trust Based Relational Intervention (TBRI), to our dedicated staff.

At PHFC, we're not just a Home; we're a place of healing. By investing in our staff's training and development, we're better equipped to provide the love and support that vulnerable children need on their journey to healing.

Thank you to all our donors for helping us make a difference in the lives of those we serve! Together, we're building a brighter future.

Celebrating 30 years of partnering with churches and communities around the world, Living Waters for the World is pleased to announce their new LWW Legacy Fund!

This fund was begun, in part, by generous donations from two of North Alabama Presbytery's churches, Trinity Presbyterian in Huntsville and First Presbyterian in Decatur, who closed their doors in 2023, will provide a lasting legacy for ministry going forward. Both churches were long time supporters of the impactful ministry of Living Waters for the World who provides access to clean water through water purification systems that are built in communities around the world who do not have access to clean water.

LWW offers training classes in administration, education, and installation through its Clean Water U program where volunteers from all walks of life gather together for one week to become trainers themselves. As Water Teams are formed, they are given the opportunity to partner with churches and communities in another country where relationships are formed, partnerships become real, and water systems are built! Check out the ministry of LWW and talk with others in your congregation to discern your calling to this ministry just as Trinity and First did!

Montreat Youth Conference affirms youth in their calling to be and to shape the church of Jesus Christ. Our desire is to help youth come to know and believe that they are the beloved of God and to be a place where authenticity, community, connection, and God's truth thrive. We seek to be an inclusive space where each voice can be heard and where each heart can be molded; where change is invited, challenge is expected, and where all are embraced.

This summer, we will build an accepting community of unconditional love where every story matters. Through engaging worship, lively music, practices of gratitude and fun, we will offer youth different opportunities to cultivate their spiritual faith journeys and practice sabbath. We will provide a secure space that is loving, holy, and authentic so that we may glorify God in all that we do, inspiring and equipping a lifetime of faith.

Youth leave Montreat knowing that:

- Their faith matters.
- They are loved as they are.

They are part of a community of faith.
